

Stade Saputo Prohibited Items List

Canada Soccer Men and Women's National Team matches

For the safety and security of our fans, possession of any of the items listed below, or possession of any other object which endangers the safety of others (as determined by Canada Soccer, Stade Saputo staff or law enforcement in their reasonable discretion), will, result in immediate ejection from the Stadium.

All spectators attending an event at Stade Saputo (the "stadium") are subject to an electronic inspection by security prior to entering the gates.

Spectators with bags are subject to a more thorough inspection and will be asked to open their bag. The process of searching and confirming the contents of a bag are a "Condition of Entry". Where the contents cannot be verified the individual can be refused entry.

In order to minimize potential wait times at the stadium's gates, the staff suggests:

- To arrive at the gates 90 minutes prior to kickoff;
- To leave bags at home;
- To carry as few items as possible;
- To follow directions given by security and the stadium's staff.
